

MEDICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES AVAILABLE FOR NEW YORK CITY'S ADOLESCENTS AND EMERGING ADULTS

NYC Health + Hospitals/Gotham Health, Judson continues to provide urgent sexual/reproductive health services, LGBTQ affirming care, and mental health support for New York City's adolescents and emerging adults during the COVID-19 emergency.

The following services are being provided over the phone. Medical appointments will be scheduled as appropriate.

- + STI testing and treatment
- + Emergency contraception and birth control
- + PrEP/PEP
- + Urgent GYN needs
- + Gender affirming care, including hormone therapy
- + Pregnancy testing and options counseling
- + Mental health support

Gotham Health, Judson services are being temporarily relocated to Gotham Health, Gouverneur located at 227 Madison Street, NY, NY during the COVID -19 pandemic. To access services, please call 212-925-5000 (after the language prompt, press 3 to speak with a nurse).

You will be able to speak with a nurse in your primary language about your medical and mental health concerns and an appointment with one of our healthcare providers will be scheduled as medically appropriate.

Please note, that while these services are geared toward adolescents and emerging adults, during the COVID-19 emergency, patients of all ages who require care are encouraged to call and access services.
