NYC Health + Hospitals/ Harlem is a 272-bed acute care facility and a designated Level 1 Trauma Center, with a full spectrum of specialty services, including a burn unit, an adult intensive care unit, a neonatal intensive care unit, a pediatric intensive care unit, and a cardiac care unit.

Administrator of Laboratory Services

QUALIFICATIONS

1. Holds and maintains a Clinical Laboratory Technologist License issued by the New York State Education Department (NYSED) and meets one of the qualification requirements of a laboratory supervisor as outlined in Title 10, Section 58-1.4 of the New York Public Health Law; and
2. Master’s degree from an accredited college or university in Biology, Medical Technology, Clinical Laboratory Sciences or a related field; and five (5) years of experience overseeing laboratory operations, creating and establishing laboratory programs and reviewing and interpreting safety data, in a hospital or health care setting, three (3) years of which must have been in a responsible administrative, managerial or supervisory capacity; or
3. Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university in one of the fields described in “2” above; and, seven (7) years of laboratory experience as described in “2” above, five (5) years of which must have been in a responsible administrative, managerial or supervisory capacity; or
4. A satisfactory equivalent of education, training, and experience. However, all candidates must be licensed and currently registered by the NYSED to practice as a Clinical Laboratory Technologist and meet one of the qualification requirements of a laboratory supervisor, as described in “1” above.

FOR IMMEDIATE CONSIDERATION SEND RESUME TO recruit@nychhc.org | Subject Line “Administrator of Lab Services”