

Emergency Management Fellowship Program

Gain firsthand experience supporting emergency preparedness, healthcare readiness, climate resilience, and public health response initiatives across the nation's largest municipal healthcare system.

Fellowship Responsibilities

- Support all-hazards emergency management planning
- Assist with drills and tabletop exercises
- Support continuity planning
- Develop educational materials
- Conduct research on healthcare preparedness
- Participate in healthcare facility site visits,

And more

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree required; Master's degree preferred
- Background or strong interest in emergency management, public health, healthcare preparedness, or related fields
- Strong communication, research, organizational, and teamwork skills
- Experience with Microsoft Office Suite, especially Word and Excel

Unpaid, part-time fellowship opportunity with minimum 10 hours per week for at least 6 consecutive months

Contact: Jonas Ballreich, Director for Planning & Preparedness
Central Office Emergency Management NYC Health + Hospitals

email: ballreij@nychhc.org

To apply, submit the following:

- Resume / CV
- Statement of interest

For more information on responsibilities, visit Institute for Diseases and Disaster Management - Internship and Fellowship Opportunities - NYC Health + Hospitals