

MAKE PLANS TODAY TO CELEBRATE
HEALTHCARE SIMULATION WEEK!

This September, we're celebrating the professionals who work in healthcare simulation, people like you and your team who improve the safety, effectiveness and efficiency of healthcare services every day.

Healthcare Simulation Week will take place September 17-21, 2018. We're planning open access to Simulation in Healthcare, Twitter Journal Chats, and so much more!

For more information on NYC Health + Hospitals Simulation Center Events, contact the Simulation Center at 718.975.6500 or #HealthSimNYC.
